

Háu mitákuyapi (hello my relatives)
Come, learn hands-on how to
Brain-Tan
Buffalo Hides
- the Lakota/Dakota way!

Attend one of two eight-day workshops at:

Kenel: Saturday, June 19 to Saturday,

June 26 at the Kenel Pow Wow grounds on Hwy. 1806, ½ mi. S. of Kenel

Fort Yates: Saturday, July 24 to Saturday, July 31 at the Farmers Market hoop building on 92nd St; ½ mi. east of Hwy. 24/1806

Teacher: Rochelle Forgét, professional hide tanner

We ask that all participants work together with another family member on their hide. Children, visitors and elders are very welcome. A hide is worth about $40 at the start, but can be worth $800 or more when completed. Participants take their tanned hide home to keep, once borrowed tools are returned!

Fees: This program is provided at NO cost to participants.

Planned Schedule:

Saturday: Prayer & intro., wash hides, lace hides onto frames, begin fleshing (removing fat & muscle)

Sunday: Finish fleshing and start scraping with a wahintka

Monday: Dry-scrape to remove membranes and to thin the thick areas

Tuesday: Continue dry-scraping, some hides may be ready for applying brains

Wednesday: Finish dry-scraping, applying brains, begin breaking (softening) hides

Thursday: Brain the remainder of hides, continue breaking hides

Friday & Saturday: Finish breaking hides, trim edges off, and take finished hides home

Hours: Everyday we will start around 8 AM with a prayer, and end about 4 or 5 PM.

Meals & refreshments: Lunch will be provided every day. Refreshments will be available all day (water, lemonade, fruit, etc.)

Sponsors:

Sitting Bull College, U S Department of Agriculture

Please Contact us to let us know you are coming, and to get a list of things to bring. Call Sybil Clown, or Rick DeLoughery, Bison Education Coordinator, Sitting Bull College, Bear Soldier Campus, McLaughlin; 605-823-4318. Or email: rickd@sbc.edu or sybilc@sbc.edu

Camping is possible at each site

Continuing Education Units: up to 4.0

2009 Bison hide tanning workshop participants

A 2008 hide tanner really into scraping!

